

We Are the People

No capo, played in straight G. The first chord is technically G5. But the second could be Fmaj7 or C... Observations welcome. Further analysis has proved this to be a little tricky in the second line, where the chords suggest a neat little descending bass line.

Intro:

G5 C G5 C

G5 C Em F Fmaj7 D/Asus4

Well once I was a pretty Boy Blue, had my Church and family's blessing

C2 Bm Am G2 C2 D

But that is the part of me I find the most depressing

G C Em F Fmaj7 D/Asus4

I was taught to think of myself as better than all the others

C2 Bm Am G C D

But now the only thing I want is to stand up with my brothers, singing

C Em Am/Em D Em

We are the people, we are the proud (yes we are)

C Em Am/Em D Em

We are the people, and now won't you join the crowd

F C G

And be one of the people now,

Won't you be, one of the people now

They've got prisons for the criminals

The good in with the bad
 Prisons for the old and lonely
 Prisons for the mad
 But now I hear the prisons walls
 Are growing without relief
 For locking up people without a trial
 Jailed for their beliefs (but)

They are the people, they are the proud (yes they are)
 We are the people, and now won't you join the crowd
 And be one of the people now,
 Won't you be, one of the people now

Do you hear the brass band playing
 Do you hear the tramp of feet?
 Twenty thousand working men
 Are coming down the street
 Will you listen to what they're saying
 Will you listen to their song
 One man may not be right
 But can all of these be wrong? (Singing)

We are the people, we are the proud (yes we are)
 We are the people, and now won't you join the crowd?
 And be one of the people now,
 Won't you be, one of the people now

We are the people, we are the proud
 We are the people, and now won't you join the crowd?
 And be one of the people now,
 Won't you be, one of the people now

(F C G to fade)
